The Trumbull County Fair Historical Village Welcomes you to the 180th Trumbull County Fair

The Trumbull County Fair Historical Village Committee invites you to visit the Historical Village, located in the heart of the fairgrounds. Take a stroll down memory lane as you explore the former Bazetta Christian Church, the Cortland Cities Service Gas Station, and the Orangeville Jail. Be sure to stop by the Ford Bros. Saloon, located next to the blacksmith shop.

During your visit, you can enjoy old-time saloon music played on a vintage player piano and learn about the many saloons, inns, and taverns that once operated throughout Trumbull County. Don't miss the coal mining experience, Coal Mine No. 8, where visitors can walk through simulated rock and coal tunnels just like a miner, while also discovering information about the region's coal mining history. For a hands-on activity, try the gem mining experience, where fairgoers can purchase a burlap bag filled with gems and stones and pan for treasures in a water-filled sluice, just as it was done in the past.

The Penny Theater will also be open during fair week. The theater is air-conditioned, just like the old-time movie houses, and will be playing classic radio programs from the 1930s through the 1950s. There will also be live musical performances, as advertised on the theater marquee. The theater building, along with the Ford Bros. Saloon, was generously donated by Millcraft Barns.

Returning this year are the Trumbull County Beekeepers Association and the 105th Ohio Infantry Regiment Civil War encampment. Be sure to visit the Local History Showcase inside the church, where historical organizations from across Trumbull County will display artifacts and photographs.

While visiting the Village, children can participate in the History Hunt inside the church for a prize and make a new friend through the Pen Pal Post Office. Historic Trumbull County Fair signs and memorabilia will also be on display.

Finally, don't miss a special appearance by Abraham Lincoln at the Village on Friday, July 17, from 2 PM to 5 PM.

Trumbull County Antique Tractor Club will have a display near the Agricultural Building during Fair week.
